

Interested in a Career in the Health Care Field
With Immediate Job Opportunities After Graduation???

Take Advantage of The High Demand For Clinical Laboratory Scientists
Earn a BS Degree in Medical Technology

(B.S. degree graduates entering program may also concurrently earn 16 hours of credit towards Masters in Health Sciences)

- The department accepts students in January of each year
- Application deadline is October 15, 2008 for the class beginning in January, 2009
- Length of program is 16 months (12 months at LSUHSC in New Orleans and 4 months at a hospital affiliate located in NO, BR, Lafayette or Houma)
- Minimum of 2.5 GPA and 71 prerequisite credits required
- See website listed below for additional information

Clinical Laboratory Scientists (Medical Technologists)

- Work primarily in hospital laboratories, physician's office labs or reference laboratories
- Perform tests that provide vital information necessary for the diagnosis, treatment and prevention of disease.

The profession provides

- Good starting salaries
- Ability to branch into medical or pharmaceutical sales, forensics, DNA analysis
- Opportunities for advancement into management positions
- Excellent preparation for Medical/Dental school
- Job security not dependent on the economy

According to Jobs Rated Almanac.....

Medical Technologist is ranked in the top 20 Jobs in America

Income growth potential is estimated at 275%.

Employment opportunity is expected to increase sharply in coming years

For More Information Contact:

Anthony Oster
Rm: 150 Hines
225-578-8281
aoster@lsu.edu

Patsy Jarreau, Program Director
LSUHSC School of Allied Health Professions
Dept. of Clinical Laboratory Sciences
1900 Gravier St.
New Orleans, LA 70112
504-568-4271
pjarre@lsuhsc.edu

Or Visit Our Website at: <http://alliedhealth.lsuhs.edu/ClinicalLaboratory/>